 Thank you for the information.

I do not have much, just information from my mother in law, Phyllis Beier. I have attached the information in a test file.

I have just started on my husbands family. Keith Klein's (my husband) grandmother was Wilhelmena Ellen Beutter.

So you went to Baden to research records. You must speak German.

We are living in france right now, so we use the french server, Wanadoo, to access our AOL server. Confusing? Either address works. I am in AOL all the time.

I. FAMILY PAPERS

Loar Tuxarawas,

Ohio, Februar 17-85

Alb. Beuter,

Werther Freund and Namensbruder!

Ihr Werthes vom 13.<sup>ten</sup> mit Einschluss meines Lohnes, kam mir gestern zu und erlaube mir darauf folgendes zu antworten: Ich bin schon jung von zu Hause weggekommen und demwegen nicht viel Erfahrung über unsere Verwandtschaft, weiss nicht wie weit sie verbreitet ist und in welche Winkel der Welt sie sich alle zerstreut haben. Früher ging es mir wie Ihnen, das ich dachte, unsere Familie seien die einzigen Beuter in Amerika, aber durch die ausgedehnte Bekanntheit meinerseits - und noch mehr durch meinen Lohn als Musiker und wahrscheinlich durch seine Compositionen - fand ich dass die Beuter ziemlich zahlreich hier vertreten sind.

In der Kriegszeit mit dem Süden fand ich in den Listen einen Capt. Beuter in New Orleans - vor einigen Jahren erhielt mein Lohn Briefe von Poma Y. Wisconsin vom Auskunft von zwei Beuter, vor mehreren Jahren wurden mir 3-4 Familien in Wheeling W.V. bekannt, auch in Zanesville Ohio gibt es, und vor vielen Jahren schon, das ich in einem alten Bericht von Butters in Penna.

Manche schreiben den Namen mit 2 tt. wie Sie, andere und zwar die meisten Beiter, dieses ist aber inkorrekt, denn der Name kommt von Beute her, einer unserer Verwandten liess einmal im Stammbuch den Ursprung von dem Namen aufsuchen in Stuttgart und da fand es sich findet es sich, dass ein Ritter, als das Faustrecht in Schwung kam, sehr viel Bente machte. Daher man ihn Benter nannte.

So wurde mir erzählt, als ich noch sehr jung war, aber das Wappen sah ich oft, welches sich unsere Verwandten ausstellen ließ.

Es war eine Krone und auf jeder Seite davon aufsteigend ein halbes (das Vorderteil) schwarzes Pferd.

Unser Geschlecht kam aus Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, wo sehr viele Benter wohnen - auch in Württemberg - Zum Beispiel in Rottenburg am Neckar - die Großmutter meiner Frau hieß B. und war von Kirchheim u. Teck. Freilich müssen alle Benter von einem Stamm herkommen, aber wie nahe wir verwandt sein möchten, kann ich nicht bestimmen. Mein Vater hatte noch vier Brüder, was aber aus ihnen oder ihren Töchtern geworden ist, bin ich nicht imstande anzugeben, wie oben gesagt wurde ich nicht viel bekannt in Deutschland. Und in der Tat, weiß ich jetzt mehr vom alten Land, durch vieles Lesen und Forschen, als ich wußte, da ich nach Amerika ging. Mein Sohn hat die deutsche Sprache und Literatur in seiner Gewalt so gut wie die Englische - er muß mir alle meine Briefe in Deutsch beantworten, aber seine Frau ist eben Englisch. Aber seiner Tochter hält er einen Deutschen Lehrer und auch seine Frau nimmt Unterricht. Im übrigen wissen Sie ja, wie young America es mit der Sprache hält.

Freund tut es mich doch - wenn ich von einem Benter höre, obgleich wir es nicht näher bringen als eben zu dem Namen. Mit achtungsvollem Gruß! Simon Benter.

Family papers, letter to Albert Beutter, 17 Feb 1885.

Zoar Tuscarawas, Ohio
February 17, 1885

Alb. Beuter,

Dear Fried and name brother,

Your respectable letter of the 13th mentioning my son, arrived here yesterday and I take the liberty to answer you the following: I left home when I was young and thus do not have a lot of information about our relatives, I do not know how far they are spread out and to which areas of the world they have gone. In previous times I was of the same opinion as you are namely to think that our family are the only Beuters in America but through my large circle of acquaintances - and even more through my son as a musician and most likely because of his compositions - I found out that there are quite a number of Beuters.

During time of war with the South I found a certain Capt. Beuter listed in New Orleans - a few years ago my son received letters from Iowa and Wisconsin asking for information about two Beuters, a few years back I obtained knowledge about 3-4 families in Wheeling W.V., there are also some in Zanesville, Ohio; and many years ago I read a report on Beuters in Penna.

Some of them write the name with 2 tt. as you do, others and that means most of them Beuters, which is incorrect, however, because the name originates from "loot". One of our relatives had the origin of the name checked out in the family book in Stuttgart, and it was determined that one knight when the "Faustrecht" (club law) was wide-spread, made a lot of loot, and thus he was called Beuter.

This I was told when I was very young but I saw the coat-of-arms, which our family had designed, many times. It was a crown and on each side of it the half (the upper part) raised black horse.

Our family originated in Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, where a lot of Beuters live - also in Wuerttemberg - for instance in Rottenburg at the Neckar - the grandmother of my wife was a Beuter and she came from Kirchheim and Teck. Of course all the Beuters should come from the same stem of family, however, how close our relationship is I am unable to determine.

My father had four brothers, however, I do not know what became of them or their sons. As I have indicated before I did not become very well known in Germany. As a fact, now I know more about the old country thru literature and research than I knew when I left for America. My son masters the German language and literature as well as the English - he has to answer all the letters for me in German, but his wife is English. For his daughter he has a German tutor and his wife also gets lessons. You probably know very well how the "young America" thinks of language. I am very pleased when I hear from a Beuter although we might not come any closer than just the name.

Very sincerely yours,

Simon Beuter

My father had four brothers, however, I do not know what became of them or their sons. As I have indicated before I did not become very well known in Germany. As a fact, now I know more about the old country thru literature and research than I knew when I left for America. My son masters the German language and literature as well as the English - he has to answer all the letters for me in German, but his wife is English. For his daughter he has a German tutor and his wife also gets lessons. You probably know very well how the "young America" thinks of language. I am very pleased when I hear from a Beuter although we might not come any closer than just the name.

Very sincerely yours,

Ordnung der Arbeit für die Kunstwerke selbst. Ich bin ganz an mir selbst, dass ich die Kunst, die ich in meine

die ich selbst gemacht habe - und noch mehr durch meine
Vater all Musikern und Komponisten durch seine Compositionen

Alb. Beuter,

Werther Freund and Namensbruder!

Ihr Werther vom 13.<sup>ten</sup> mit Einschluss meines Sohnes, kam mir gestern zu und erlaubte mir darauf folgendes zu antworten: Ich bin schon jung von zu Hause weggekommen und deswegen nicht viel Erfahrung über unsere Verwandtschaft, weiss nicht wie weit sie verbreitet ist und in welche Winkel der Welt sie sich alle zerstreut haben. Früher ging es mir wie Ihnen, das ich dachte, unsere Familie seien die einzigen Beuter in Amerika, aber durch die ausgedehnte Bekanntschaft meinerits - und noch mehr durch meinen Sohn als Musiker und wahrscheinlich durch seine Compositionen - fand ich dass die Beuter ziemlich zahlreich hier vertreten sind.

In der Kriegszeit mit dem Süden fand ich in den Listen einen Capt. Beuter in New Orleans - vor einigen Jahren erhielt mein Sohn Briefe von John V. Wilson um Auskunft von zwei Beuter, vor mehreren Jahren wurden mir 3-4 Familien in Wheeling W.V. bekannt, auch in Zanesville Ohio gibt es, und vor vielen Jahren schon, das ich in einem alten Bericht von Beuters in Penna.

Manche schreiben den Namen mit 2 tt. wie Sie, andere und zwar die meisten Beiter, dieses ist aber inkorrekt, denn der Name kommt von Beute her, einer unserer Verwandten liess einmal im Stammbuch den Ursprung von dem Namen aufsuchen in Stutgard und da fand er sich

fand es sich, dass ein Ritter, als das Faustrecht in Schwung kam war, sehr viel Bente machte.
 Daher man ihn Benter nannte.

So wurde mir erzählt, als ich noch sehr jung war, aber das Wappen sah ich oft, welches sich unsere Verwandten ausstellen ließ.

Es war eine Krone und auf jeder Seite davon ansteigend ein halbes (das Vordertheil) schwarzes Pferd.

Unser Geschlecht kam aus Hohenzollern - Sigmaringen, wo sehr viele Benter wohnen - auch in Württemberg - Zum Beispiel in Rottenburg am Neckar - die Großmutter meiner Frau hieß B. und war von Kirchheim
 u. Teck. Freilich müssen alle Benter von einem Stamm herkommen, aber wie nahe
 wir verwandt sein möchten, kann ich nicht bestimmen. Mein Vater hatte noch vier Brüder, was aber aus ihnen oder ihren Töchtern geworden ist, bin ich nicht imstande anzugeben, wie oben gesagt, wurde ich nicht viel bekannt in Deutschland. Und in der That, weiß ich jetzt mehr vom alten Land, durch vieles Lesen und Forcken, als ich wußte, da ich nach Amerika ging. Mein Sohn hat die deutsche Sprache und Literatur in seiner Gewalt so gut wie die Englische - er muß mir alle meine Briefe in Deutsch beantworten, aber seine Frau ist eben Englisch. Aber seiner Tochter hält er einen Deutschen Lehrer und auch seine Frau nimmt Unterricht. Im übrigen wissen Sie ja, wie young America es mit der Sprache hält.

Freuden tut es mich doch - wenn ich von einem Benter höre, obgleich wir nicht näher bringen, als eben zu dem Namen mit anlangsvollem Gruß! Simon Benter.

Alb. Beuter,

Dear Friend and name brother!

Your (respectable) letter of the 13th mentioning my son, arrived here yesterday and I take the liberty to answer you the following: I left home when I was young and thus do not have a lot of information about our relatives, I do not know how far they are spread out and to which areas of the world they have gone. In previous times I was of the same opinion as you are namely to think that our family are the only Beuters in America but through my large circle of acquaintances - and even more through my son as a musician and most likely because of his compositions - I found out that there are quite a number of Beuters.

During time of war with the South I found a certain Capt. Beuter listed in New Orleans - a few years ago my son received letters from Iowa and Wisconsin asking for information about two Beuters, a few years back I obtained knowledge about 3-4 families in Wheeling W.V., there are also some in Zanesville<sup>a</sup>/Ohio; and many years ago I read a report on Beuters in Penna.

Some of them write the name with 2 tt. as you do, others and that means most of them Beuters, which is incorrect, however, because the name originates from "loot". <sup>he</sup>One of our relatives had the origin of the name checked out in the family book in Stuttgart, and it was determined that one knight when the <sup>club law</sup>"Faustrecht" was wide-spread, made a lot of loot, and thus he was called Beuter.

This I was told when I was very young but I saw the coat-of-arms, which ~~Y~~ our family had designed, ~~Y~~ many times. It was a crown and on each side of it the half (the upper part) raised black horse.

Our family originated in Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, where a lot of Beuters live - also in Wuerttemberg - For Instance in Rottenburg at the Neckar - the grandmother of my wife was a Beuter and she came from Kirchheim and Teck. Of course all the Beuters should come from the same stem of family, however, how close our relationship is I am unable to determine. My father had four brothers, however, I do not know what became of them or their sons. As I have indicated before I did not become very well known in Germany. As a fact, now I know more about the old country thru literature and research than I knew when I left for America. # Job Printing

We Want Yours to do

Those who wonder why The Matthews-Northrup Works does more "job" printing than any two other establishments in Buffalo are not among the Works' customers.

THEY know why.

Our "Department Plan" keeps the customer in touch with his work and ensures that his every want and wish has prompt attention, while our complete equipment allows us to give to every detail the attention due to it.

So that when a customer gets his "job" he is pleased and comes back next time. He sends his advertising matter out. It is effective because the recipient is pleased—half the battle.

Perhaps another factor in our favor. We charge no more for the work, done right, than it costs you elsewhere, done unsatisfactorily.

Nothing too small or nothing too large to be done right.

The Matthews-Northrup Works is the Buffalo's largest and most complete job printing establishment. We have a full line of printing equipment and a staff of experienced printers. We can handle any job, no matter how large or small, and we can deliver it on time.

A restaurant floor has a hard job

THIS restaurant is J. H. Ireland's Oyster House, in Chicago. The floor is an Armstrong's Linoleum. That floor has to stand a lot. Waiters and customers walk about on it. Between meals, the tables and chairs are moved and the place cleaned.

The linoleum floor must stand the wear of thousands of footsteps. It must be as quiet as possible, it must be comfortable to the tread, inviting to the eye, and it must undergo repeated cleaning.

But see how well this floor does its work. Water and grease do not affect it, and unsightly cracks do not appear on it, because it is properly laid. An occasional waxing and polishing, soon done, keeps it looking like new.

These same qualities recommend Armstrong's Linoleum as a practical and desirable floor for offices, shops, hospitals, and public or semi-public buildings.

Consult your architect, contractor, or any good linoleum merchant for any further desired information on the economies and advantages of Armstrong's Linoleum. Write us for our 48-page booklet, "Business Floors," which is free on request.

How to Lay Linoleum on Wood Floors

It is essential that the subfloor be in good condition. In some cases, the subfloor may need to be sanded or planed. In other cases, it may need to be covered with a layer of concrete or a layer of board.

After the subfloor is in good condition, the linoleum can be laid. The linoleum should be laid in a roomy fashion, with the joints running in the same direction. The joints should be staggered from one row to the next.

After the linoleum is laid, it should be finished with a coat of varnish. The varnish should be applied in a roomy fashion, with the brush running in the same direction as the linoleum.
